Vedanta's SSLT celebrates 44th National Safety Day in Goa & Karnataka

Panaji, March 05, 2015: Vedanta's SSLT Iron Ore business units across Goa and Karnataka celebrated the 44th National Safety Day. All employees solemnly pledged to affirm and rededicated themselves to the cause of ensuring safety, health and protection of environment, affirming to observe rules, regulations and procedures and to develop attitudes and habits conducive to promote a safe surrounding.

The employees were addressed by Mr. Kishore Kumar – CEO, Sesa Sterlite Ltd, Iron ore Business. “Keep alert to observe anything that has even the remotest possibility to compromise safety. Nothing is more important than safety and accident prevention. Safety is our individual responsibility,” said Mr. Kumar.

Further, Mr. Kumar urged employees to shoulder this responsibility together, as a family, leading by example and also raising awareness among colleagues, friends, family members and society at large to achieve the goal of ‘Zero Harm’.

Vedanta's SSLT plays a major role to sensitise employees and stakeholders at every level and promotes a safe organisational behaviour striving and establishing systems of ‘Zero Harm’ goal.
