‘International Yoga Day’ celebrated at Vedanta, Goa

Panjim, 22nd June, 2015: With the world unitedly celebrating the first International Day of Yoga on June 21, Vedanta Limited in Codli, held a Yoga session led by Art of Living trainers, Mr. Santosh Godge and Mrs. Rima Kakodkar. Several employees of Vedanta participated in activities on relaxation, stretching and Suryanamaskar. The session concluded with guided meditations.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Sunday said, “Yoga has played a significant role in bringing the world together, cutting across differences of colour, class, creed. It is ‘our collective gift to humanity’, and also a means to enhance effective team work and ecological balance”.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Sunil Kakodkar, GM – Group Medical Services said, “Yoga spreads the message of peace and is very beneficial to health. Yoga helps us refocus our attention in a stressful life. People need to have good health, to enjoy life as nothing else is as important as health. Despite stress and pressures in life, you need to proactively use your time to benefit your health.”

After this initial training, Vedanta employees plan to make this initiative into a practice, for holistic improvement of their body and mind.

This press release contains “forward-looking statements” – that is, statements related to future, not past, events. In this context, forward-looking statements often address our expected future business and financial performance, and often contain words such as “expects,” “anticipates,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “seeks,” “should” or “will.” Forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that are, to different degrees, uncertain. For us, uncertainties arise from the behaviour of financial and metals markets including the London Metal Exchange, fluctuations in interest and or exchange rates and metal prices; from future integration of acquired businesses; and from numerous other matters of national, regional and global scale, including those of a political, economic, business, competitive or regulatory nature. These uncertainties may cause our actual future results to be materially different than those expressed in our forward-looking statements. We do not undertake to update our forward-looking statements.
