Vedanta River Fleet Rescues Man from Drowning

Panjim, 11th October, 2017: Vedanta Sesa Goa Iron Ore barge crew rescued a man from drowning in the Mandovi Bridge today around 1:45 PM. Vedanta's 'Olga' barge was going to Moudugao Port when the barge crew spotted a person drowning near the Mandovi Bridge. The team acted swiftly extending help by throwing a life buoy at the drowning person. The Marine police was informed immediately and the man who is reported to be a resident of Colvale was rescued. The Marine Police appreciated the effort of the Vedanta barge crew for their noble act.

The crew that was involved in this rescue effort were – Mr. Ravindra Fadte, Mr. Dilesh Naik, Rajesh Naik, Floriano Dias, Mr. John Fernandes, Mr. Fakirappa Talwar, Mr. Tukaram Ainapurkar, Mr. Rajesh Dhamnekar and Mr. Somdatta Sawant.

It may be recalled that Vedanta had shown similar acts of courage in the past as well when they saved the lives of 40 tourists on March 10th 2017 and also came to the rescue of the government in May 2017 when the Curchorem bridge collapsed.

This press release contains “forward-looking statements” – that is, statements related to future, not past, events. In this context, forward-looking statements often address our expected future business and financial performance, and often contain words such as “expects,” “anticipates,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “seeks,” “should” or “will.” Forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that are, to different degrees, uncertain. For us, uncertainties arise from the behaviour of financial and metals markets including the London Metal Exchange, fluctuations in interest and or exchange rates and metal prices; from future integration of acquired businesses; and from numerous other matters of national, regional and global scale, including those of a political, economic, business, competitive or regulatory nature. These uncertainties may cause our actual future results to be materially different that those expressed in our forward-looking statements. We do not undertake to update our forward-looking statements.
