Vedanta Sesa Goa Iron Ore
Dodamarg

Press Statement

During these challenging times when the entire world is facing unprecedented challenges due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Vedanta Sesa Iron Ore is working towards extending support to the communities and all other stakeholders to battle against this difficult situation through all possible means.

In our endeavour to combat this COVID 19, Vedanta Sesa Goa Iron Ore has provided grocery packets to 110 needy and poor families mainly widows, daily wage earners of Vazare, Aai, Matne, Viridi and Aambadgaon villages. 250 masks and sanitizers were provided to Police station, Tahsildar office Dodamarg as a token of appreciation to the police who work relentlessly to protect us by jeopardizing their lives and leading from the front during emergencies. To keep the place safe and sanitized, fumigation was carried out at Bus stand, market areas and government offices at Dodamarg in association with Dodamarg municipal council. Sesa Goa has also provided ambulance facility for local community in case of any medical emergency.

In line with Vedanta Sesa Goa Iron Ore philosophy of care and community welfare, we are extending our support by all means to combat this COVID-19 pandemic to all our stakeholders including that of daily wagers and medical staffs working 24*7 in the hospitals for saving lives of people as gratitude towards long lasting relationship with them.

Vedanta Sesa Goa Iron Ore has planned certain initiatives which will support the nationwide fight against COVID -19 pandemic. Implementation of most of the initiatives are already initiated at Goa, Karnataka and Jharkhand respectively.

We will continue to support through all possible means to combat this COVID-19 pandemic.

We wish everyone a healthy stay at home.
