VEDANTA INAUGURATES 12th COMPUTER TRAINING CENTRE AT HARMAL, GOA

2400+ students benefitted through Vedanta Computer centres across Goa till date.

Panaji, 18th January, 2020: Vedanta's 12th computer training centre in the state was inaugurated by Shri. Laxmikant Parsekar, Hon'ble Ex-CM of Goa, at Harmal Panchkroshi Higher Secondary School in the presence of Shri. Govindraj Desai, Principal of school, school management and representatives of Vedanta foundation. This is in line with Vedanta's nationwide CSR program of computer literacy by way of which, Vedanta has equipped over 2400 students so far, across the Goa state.

Speaking on the occasion, Shri. Laxmikant Y Parsekar said, "In today's technologically driven and digitalized world, this initiative by Vedanta will help our Goan youth immensely in acquiring digital education that will enable better career prospects for them. I urge all of you to optimally utilize this advanced facility to enhance your career progress and achieve new heights thereby, bringing upon many more laurels to this village & to our state"

The new Computer Training Centre will provide a unique and very useful opportunity for the students to acquire computer knowledge and undergo computer-based E-learning. The students will not only learn the basics of computer operations but also will be able to empower themselves for achieving new heights in extremely lucrative arena, which has massive opportunities for qualified and digitally competent professionals.

Mr. Sauvick Mazumdar, CEO - Vedanta Sesa Goa Iron Ore quoted "Community engagement and welfare is at the core of our Vedanta Business strategy. We strongly believe that holistic community development coupled with robust stakeholder engagement is the part and parcel of a business to flourish successfully and sustainably. I am extremely happy to announce one more Vedanta computer centre today, expanding the benefit to wider section of community and contributing at large towards the Government's vision of digital India"

The Vedanta CSR initiative was deeply appreciated by the Parent Teacher Association Members and the School's Management Committees.
