Vedanta's SFA fosters 3-Dimensional Coaching approach to further enhance their grassroots football training programs.

- Sesa Football Academy (SFA) hosted Mark Hull from the 3D coaching institute at their Sirsaim campus for a session on 3D coaching.
- The session focussed on significance of 3-Dimensional way of coaching with special emphasis on all three levels of training i.e., fundamentals, psychology, and heart.

Sirsaim, Goa 6th August 2022: Vedanta's Sesa Football Academy recently hosted Mark Hull from the 3D coaching institute for an in-depth session on 3-Dimensional coaching to further boost its grassroots training programs with high focus on three important levels i.e., fundamentals, psychology, and heart. Mark, who has done 3D workshops in four continents with coaches and sports leaders from more than 25 countries, guided the SFA coaches on the importance of building character of the trainees through holistic training approach, which will help in further adding up to their professional football trainings. He also interacted with SFA trainees and motivated them to make the most out of the robust residential training program provided by Sesa Football Academy.

Sesa Football Academy established in the year 1999 has groomed over 200 + skilled footballers through robust grassroots training programs of which 9 have played for Indian National team and many are shining at prestigious footballing platforms such as elite ISL, I-League etc. This unique training session was highly beneficial for the coaches and Academy players in honing up their skills, and further motivated them to upgrade training techniques.

Mark Hull, Director- 3D International Development, 3D Institute applauded the state-of-the-art infrastructure and facilities at SFA while he urged the young champs to keep up their passion for the game. He said "It's an honour to be here at SFA where they are trying to make a notable difference in the lives of the aspiring players. Not just technically and tactically but our encouragement is also to skill and coach the mind, focussing on capturing the heart, building the foundation of purpose through 3D Coaching"

Annanya Agarwal, President, Vedanta Sports expressed his gratitude towards 3D coaching Institute for this highly enriching session and said, "At Vedanta, our continuous endeavor is to identify and nurture young sporting talent through our structured grassroots initiatives. We aim to build a conducive and promising environment for budding talents to grow, learn and excel in sports. Sessions such as these will help enhance our player development programs and groom more professional footballers for the country. I thank Mark Hull and the 3D Institute for associating with us and delivering an enriching training session."

Over the span of more than two decades, Sesa Football Academy have expanded manifold in their endeavour to train and groom the footballing talents across Goa and from various other parts of the country. Apart from residential football training programs at SFA Vedanta

Women's League A unique platform developed for aspiring women footballers across Goa state is gaining massive popularity and helping the women footballers to excel in football.
